FESTIVAL • MELBOURNE

MEDIA RELEASE

JANUARY 2019

MELBOURNE WILL ERUPT WITH COLOUR AND EXCITEMENT THIS FEBRUARY AS THE CHINESE NEW YEAR MELBOURNE FESTIVAL USHERS IN THE LUNAR NEW YEAR WITH A BANG

Melbourne will soon be bursting with festive cheer as the Chinese New Year Melbourne Festival envelopes the city to welcome in the new Lunar New Year in February 2019. For 16 days from February 2nd to 17th, the city will come alive with events across some of Melbourne's most treasured landmarks including the Melbourne Museum, the Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre, Queensbridge Square, the Docklands and South Wharf.

The Chinese New Year Melbourne Festival will open officially at Queensbridge Square on February 2nd with incredible Lion and Dragon dance performances, ladies in exquisite clothing from an array of ancient dynasties along with a slew of Chinese cultural activities. City of Melbourne Lord Mayor, Sally Capp, will be in attendance to officially open the festival.

"One of our city's favourite events, the Chinese New Year Festival Melbourne 2019, unites families and friends to celebrate Chinese culture and traditions across the city," said Sally Capp, Lord Mayor of Melbourne.

"This year will be our biggest celebration yet, with activations from the north of the city at the Melbourne Museum across to festivities and cultural activities at Southbank and South Wharf, in addition to our wonderful dragon boat Regatta held at the Docklands," said Thomas Ling, chairman of CNY United, the incorporated body established to manage the Festival.

Among the list of must-see events at this year's Chinese New Year Melbourne Festival is the Dragon Boat Regatta at the Victoria Harbour Promenade Docklands, where members of the public can form teams to race authentic dragon boats. The public races will be followed by a second Dragon Boat Regatta run by Melbourne's Dragon Boat Clubs.

Other exciting activities include Lion dances, a special dinner for international students, Chinese costume shows, stilt walking displays and opera performances.

Queensbridge Square will come alive with the Street of Chinese Cuisine on February 2nd and 3rd with a focus on Chinese New Year food such as dumplings, sweet rice cakes and spring rolls with special cooking demonstrations from 2017 MasterChef winner Diana Chan, as well as tai chi, martial arts, lantern making and much more.

The Chinese New Year Melbourne Festival acknowledges the support of its principal partner, City of Melbourne, Major Partner, The Victorian Multicultural Commission, as well as the support of Melbourne Museum, The State of Victoria and the Federation of Chinese Associations.

The program will feature many activities, including:

Chinese New Year at Melbourne Museum

Family Day at the Cultural Kaleidoscope

Date: 09.02.18

Time: 11:00am – 4:00pm

Grab the whole family and head down to the Melbourne Museum and get amongst the Chinese New Year celebrations, with a range of amusing activities to keep you preoccupied all day. Learn how to make lanterns, write your name in calligraphy, or immerse yourself in the ancient art of paper cutting, or face mask colouring. Relax and let the festival show you about the Chinese culture through performances from local and international Chinese artists, both young and old. There will also be plenty of photo opportunities for the little ones when the Chinese God of Wealth, Luck and Fortune stops by.

Where: Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre (MCEC)

Tickets: <http://abaw.org.au/> or <http://www.fcavic.org.au/>

A world-renowned Chinese Arts delegation is coming to Melbourne to treat guests to a traditional Chinese concert. The gala attracts over 1500 people annually, with this year expecting to be more impressive than ever before. Hosted by The Oriental Arts Company and supported by local Chinese performers, the dynamic collaboration will come to life at the Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre for one night only.

"China Year, Eastern Love" Concert

Date: 15.02.19

Time: 6.30pm – 8.30pm

Venue: Melbourne Town Hall

Tickets: <http://www.fcavic.org.au/>

After the success of their previous visit, the Shanghai Artists Delegation has added more talent to the line-up of their Australian tour this year, with two enchanting operas popular in the eastern regions of China, the Shanghai Opera and the Yue Opera to perform. The evening will also feature stand-up comedy.

Made up of artists solely from Shanghai the performance will grace the 2019 Chinese New Year Melbourne Festival and greet the local Chinese community. Directors and leaders of the Australian Shanghai Business Association Inc, the Chinese Museum, and the Melbourne Chinese Song and Dance Troupe, have actively supported "China Year, Eastern Love" to bring it from Shanghai to Melbourne. After its Melbourne performance on 15 February 2019, the show will continue on to Sydney and Brisbane.

Celebrate at DFO South Wharf

This is a night for students to showcase their skills across a variety of creative mediums including music, dance and singing. Held in the Melbourne Swanston Hall, students can connect with one another and their respective cultures while playing games, cracking riddles and sharing a meal. The details to the event and tickets will be organised by the Student Union and attendance by invitation only.

Chinese New Year at Docklands

A weekend at The District Docklands

Date: 08.02.19, 09.02.19 & 10.02.19

Time: 11:00am – 2:00pm

Venue: 440 Docklands Drive, Docklands VIC 3008

For three days only, The District Docklands will light up to celebrate the Year of Pig in true Chinese style. Kicking things off on Friday 8 February at Fukutontei Ramen, a lion dance will bless the restaurant at noon and then roam through O'Brien Group Arena for a lion dance on ice and through the venue in the evening. Saturday will feature live music, entertainment, and fun activities for the whole family to enjoy. Try your hand at lantern making, painting or paper cutting, or learn how to write your name in Chinese.

Social Dragon Boat Regatta – Social Teams

Date: 16.02.19

Time: 9:00am – 5:00pm

Dragon Boat racing has been practiced for more than 2000 years, making it one of China's oldest and most revered traditions. In the Chinese culture, the Dragon is a symbol for good luck and is said to live within the sea and in the clouds, controlling the rainfall. Over the years the racing has come to symbolise a ritual to bring luck and prosperity to a city. The Social Dragon Boat Regatta is an opportunity for the community to get involved in the tradition of fun, with any organisation, company, association, or group of friends able to form a team to be part of this event. The training would be provided. Running throughout the day and in conjunction with other cultural performances, the afternoon will finish off with a presentation to crown the Social Teams winners.

Club Dragon Boat Regatta - Clubs

Date: 17.02.19

Time: 9:00am – 5:00pm

Just like the Saturday edition, the Sunday Dragon Boat Regatta will run in a similar fashion, except the races are reserved for club members.
